

FLYSHEET AN-13 PERIODIC TEST REQUIREMENT

Unless otherwise specified in the purchase order, Seller is responsible for the performance, or the assurance of performance, of ALL inspection requirements specified in procurement document(s).

When the inspection requirement(s) specific periodic testing; i.e., Group B and/or C tests, compliance with those requirements is mandatory and Seller is responsible for the performance, or the assurance of performance, of those tests, at their prescribed intervals.

When the procurement requirements do not specify that the test data is to be transmitted to Buyer, Seller is required to notify Buyer, either by certification or a notation on the shipping document, of the date of performance of such tests.
