4. Cost Accounting Standards

(1) (Applicable if this contract incorporates clause H001). The version of FAR 52.230-2, Cost Accounting Standards, incorporated by clause H001 is the version dated April 1998.

(2) (Applicable if this contract incorporates clause H002). The version of FAR 52.230-3, Disclosure and Consistency of Cost Accounting Practices, incorporated by clause H002 is the version dated April 1998.

(3) (Applicable if this contract incorporates clause H003). The version of FAR 52.230-4, Consistency in Cost Accounting Practices, incorporated by clause H003 is the version dated August 1992.

(4) (Applicable if this contract incorporates clause H004). The version of FAR 52.230-5, Cost Accounting Standards – Educational Institution, incorporated by clause H004 is the version dated April 1998.

5. The following prime contract special provisions apply to this purchase order:

A. NOTIFICATION OF DEBARMENT/SUSPENSION STATUS

Seller shall provide immediate notice to Buyer in the event of being debarred suspended, or proposed for debarment by any Federal Agency during the performance of this Contract.

B. SUBCONTRACTOR'S EMPLOYEES AT UK INSTALLATIONS

(1) The Seller shall be responsible for assuring that its employees and the employees of any of its lower-tier subcontractors shall learn and comply with the rules, regulations, and requirements in force at those establishments in the United Kingdom where the work is performed. In addition, with respect to work performed within the United Kingdom, the Seller and any of its lower-tier subcontractors shall comply with the security regulations and requirements of the Ministry of Defense of the United Kingdom.

(2) If any of the employees of Seller or its lower-tier subcontractors are found to be either not qualified to perform the work required or otherwise unsuitable, Buyer may direct that those employees be replaced with qualified and suitable employees. In the event that any such employees are replaced for the reason that they are unsuitable and such replacement results in an increase in the cost of performance of this subcontract, an equitable adjustment, if warranted, shall be made in the contract price.

C. CROSS UTILIZATION OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY (GP) AMONG CONTRACTS

F040701-92-C-0049, F04701-97-C-0042, F04701-96-C-0023, F04701-02-C-0002, FA8808-04-C-0012, AND F04701-95-C-0017 (NOV 2003)

- (1) Authorization is given for the cross-utilization of all Government Property (GP) including Contractor-Acquired, Government-Owned equipment (CAGP) (CAGP includes special tooling, special test equipment, plant equipment, and facilities accountable to Contract Nos. F04701-92-C-0049, F04701-97-C-0042, FA8808-04-C-0012, F04701-96-C-0023, F04701-02-C-0002 on a rent-free, non-interference basis, unless use is otherwise restricted (e.g., restricted rights software and COMSEC equipment/material). In the event of a usage conflict between the owning contract and the using contract, the owning contract shall have precedence.
- (2) Since scheduling the rent-free, non-interference use of and maintenance of GP/CAGP is controlled by the Seller, no claim for unavailability or unsuitability for use will be recognized by the Government as defined in the clause of this contract entitled "Government Property".
- (3) All shipments and transfers will be documented by a DD Form 1149. Government approval is not required for changes in locations of GP/CAGP accountable to the aforementioned contracts. Government approval shall be obtained for each transfer of accountability.
- (4) The Seller is authorized to transfer residual Government-Owned material items among these contracts in accordance with government approved company material management accounting system procedures. Records related to transfers of residual material among these contracts are subject to periodic Government review and/or audit.
- (5) This special subcontract requirement shall be flowed down to all lower tier subcontractors that include the use of government-owned property.

D. ENABLING CLAUSE FOR TECHNICAL REVIEW (MAY 2003)

- (1) The Air Force Space and Missile Systems Center (SMC) is responsible for management of this contract. The Air Force has entered into a contract with The Aerospace Corporation for the services of a technical group that will support the DoD program office by performing Technical Review tasks.
- (2) Technical Review (TR) tasks includes the process of appraising the technical performance of the Seller through meetings, exchanging information on progress and problems, reviewing reports, evaluating presentations, reviewing hardware and software, witnessing and evaluating tests, analyzing plans for future work, evaluating efforts relative to contract technical objectives, and providing comments and recommendations in writing to the Air Force Manager as an independent technical assessment for consideration for modifying the program or redirecting the Sellers' efforts to assure timely and economical accomplishment of program objectives
- (3) In the performance of this contract, the Seller agrees to cooperate with The Aerospace Corporation by responding to invitations from authorized personnel to attend meetings; by providing access to technical information and research, development and planning data such as, but not limited to, design and development analyses; test data and results; equipment and process specifications; test equipment specifications and procedures, parts and quality control procedures, records and data; manufacturing and assembly procedures; and schedule and milestone data, all in their original form or reproduced form and excluding financial data; by delivering data as specified in the contract Data Requirements List; by discussing technical matters relating to this program; by providing access to Seller facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; and by allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate support Aerospace technical personnel. The Aerospace personnel engaged in review efforts are authorized access to any technical information pertaining to this contract.
- (4) The Seller further agrees to include in each contract a clause requiring compliance by the Seller and succeeding levels of subcontractors with the response and access provisions of paragraph (3) above, subject to coordination with the Seller. This agreement does not relieve the Seller of responsibility to manage subcontracts effectively and efficiently, nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between the Government or the Aerospace Corporation and such subcontractors.

(5) The Aerospace Corporation personnel are not authorized to direct the Seller in any manner. The Seller agrees to accept technical direction as follows:

(A) Technical direction under this contract will be given to the Seller solely by the Buyer.

(B) Whenever it becomes necessary to modify the contract and redirect the effort, a Change Notice by the Buyer, or an amendment signed by both the Buyer and the Seller will be issued.

E. ENABLING CLAUSE FOR GENERAL SYSTEMS ENGINEERING AND INTEGRATION (JUN 2003)

(1) This contract covers part of the Milstar program, which is under the general program management of the Air Force Space and Missile Systems Center (SMC). The Air Force has entered in a contract with The Aerospace Corporation for the services of a technical group, which will support the DOD program office by performing General Systems Engineering and Integration.

(2) General Systems Engineering and Integration (GSE&I) deals with overall system definition; integration both within the system and with associated systems; analysis of system segment and subsystem design; design compromises and trade-offs; definition of interfaces; review of hardware and software including manufacturing and quality control; observation, review and evaluation of tests and test data; support of launch, flight test, and orbital operations; appraisal of the Sellers' technical performance, through meetings with contractors and Sellers, exchange and analysis of information on progress and problems, review of plans for future work; developing solutions to problems; technical alternatives for reduced program risk; providing comments and recommendations in writing to the DoD System Program Manager and/or Project Officer as an independent technical assessment for consideration for modifying the program or redirecting the Sellers' efforts; all to the extent necessary to assure timely and economical accomplishment of program objectives consistent with mission requirements.

(3) In the performance of this contract, the Seller agrees to cooperate with The Aerospace Corporation by responding to invitations from authorized personnel to attend meetings; by providing access to technical information and research, development planning data such as, but not limited to, design and development analyses; test data and results; equipment and process specifications; test and test equipment specifications and procedures, parts and quality control procedures, records and data; manufacturing and assembly procedures; and schedule and milestone data, all in their original form or reproduced form and excluding financial data; by delivering data as specified in the Contract Data Requirements List; by discussing technical matters relating to this program; by providing access to Seller facilities utilized in the performance of this contract; and by allowing observation of technical activities by appropriate support Aerospace technical personnel. The Aerospace personnel engaged in general systems engineering and integration efforts are authorized access to any technical information pertaining to this contract.

(4) The Seller further agrees to include in each lower tier subcontract a clause requiring compliance by the succeeding levels of subcontractors with the response and access provisions of paragraph (3) above, subject to coordination with the Seller. This agreement does not relieve the Seller of his/her responsibility to manage subcontracts effectively and efficiently, nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between the Government or The Aerospace Corporation and such subcontractors.

(5) The Aerospace Corporation personnel are not authorized to direct the Seller in any manner. The Seller agrees to accept technical direction as follows:

(A) Technical direction under this contract will be given to the Seller by Lockheed Martin.

(B) Whenever it becomes necessary to modify the contract and redirect the effort, a Change Notice signed by Lockheed Martin, or an Amendment signed by both Lockheed Martin and the Seller will be issued.
