52.222-36 Affirmative Action for Handicapped Workers (JUN 1998). This clause applies only if this contract exceeds $10,000.

4. The following prime contract special provisions apply to this purchase order:

A. NOTIFICATION OF DEBARMENT/SUSPENSION STATUS

Seller shall provide immediate notice to Buyer in the event of being debarred suspended, or proposed for debarment by any Federal Agency during the performance of this Contract.

B. ENABLING CLAUSE FOR GENERAL SYSTEMS ENGINEERING & TECHNICAL REVIEW

(1) "General systems engineering" deals with the overall integration of a system, design compromises among subsystems, definitions of interfaces, analysis of subsystems and objectives are being met in an economical and timely manner. "Technical guidance: is restricted to scientific, engineering or to other technical field of discipline matters directly related to the work to be performed; such guidance may be provided for the purposes of filling in details, clarifying, interpreting or otherwise serving to accomplish the technical objectives and requirements of the order.

(2) In the performance of this contract, Seller agrees to cooperate with other contractors designated by Buyer by responding to invitations from authorized personnel to attend meetings; by providing access to technical information and research and development planning data and by discussing technical matters related to this contract. Subject to applicable security requirements, designated contractor personnel engaged in general system engineering efforts pertaining to work under this contract are authorized access to any technical and cost information concerning work under this contract.

(3) The designated contractors are not authorized to direct Seller in any manner. Whenever the process of technical guidance generates a need for a modification of this contract, this will be accomplished by a formal modification to the order signed by Buyer. This clause does relieve Seller of the responsibility to manage its subcontractors effectively, nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between Buyer and the Seller's subcontractors.

(4) Seller will place in its subcontracts supporting this contract a clause requiring compliance with the response and access provisions outlined above, subject to coordination with Seller.

C. ENABLING CLAUSE FOR ARCHITECTURE-LEVEL ENGINEERING SUPPORT

Buyer has entered into a contract for architecture-level engineering support, which includes "transition planning and cooperation; configuration management process administration; interface definition and maintenance; verification of architecture-level requirements; and the obtaining of the data required to perform any of the identified functions. In the performance of this contract, Seller agrees to co-operate with the contractor identified by the Buyer for architecture-level engineering support. "Co-operation" is defined as: responding to requests to attend meetings; providing access to technical, schedule, performance and risk data; discussing matters relating to architecture-level integration responsibilities; providing access to Seller facilities used to support this contract; and allowing observation of necessary technical activities by appropriate personnel. No representative of the architecture-level engineering support contractor is authorized to issue technical direction or changes in the scope of this contract to Seller. Seller agrees to include in each of its subcontracts supporting this contract a provision requiring compliance by the subcontract with response and access provisions set forth above, subject to co-ordination with Seller. This clause does not relieve Seller of its responsibility to manage its subcontracts effectively; nor is it intended to establish privity of contract between the architecture-level engineering support contract and Seller's subcontractors.

D. ASSOCIATE CONTRACTOR RELATIONSHIPS

(1) By acceptance of this contract, Seller assumes the responsibilities of an Associate Contractor. For purposes of this clause, "Seller" shall mean subsidiaries, affiliates, or organizations under the control of Seller, including its subcontractors.

(2) To the extent that proprietary or confidential data is received by Seller from another Associate Contractor in the performance of this contract, Seller hereby agrees that any proprietary information received shall remain the property of the Associate Contractor in question, and shall be used solely for the purposes for which it was provided. Only that information received from another Associate Contractor in writing clearly identified as proprietary or confidential shall be protected in accordance with this provision. The obligation to retain such information in confidence will be satisfied if the Seller utilizes the same controls it employs to avoid disclosure, publication or dissemination of its own proprietary information. The receiving Associate Contractor agrees to hold such information in confidence as provided herein, so long as such information is of proprietary/confidential data nature.

(3) Seller hereby agrees to closely co-operate with other Associate Contractors on this program. This involves at a minimum: maintenance of a close liaison and working relationship; maintenance of free and open information networks with all Buyer-identified Associate Contractors; delineation of detailed interface responsibilities; entering into written agreements with the other Associate Contractors setting forth the substance and procedures relating to the foregoing, and providing Buyer with a copy of any such agreement; and receipt of proprietary information as to the Associate Contractor and transmittal of Seller proprietary information as to Associate Contractors, subject to any applicable proprietary information agreements between Associate Contractors, when these actions are necessary for the performance of either.

(4) In the event Seller and an Associate Contractor are unable to agree upon any such interface or if the technical data identified is not provided as scheduled, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer and furnish the Seller's recommended solution. The Buyer and the Government will determine the appropriate corrective action with the Buyer issuing direction to the affected Seller. Seller shall proceed in accordance with such direction, subject to the provisions of this order.

(5) Seller shall insert the substance of this clause in all of its own subcontracts directly supporting this contract.
