In addition, any explosions occurring at or around Vandenberg AFB or Cape Canaveral Air Station, not caused by Seller's actions or omissions, which interferes with or interrupts Seller's use of the launch site, shall be conclusively presumed to be an excusable delay under this clause. Seller shall notify Buyer in writing within five working days after commencement of any excusable delay, setting forth the full particulars in connection therewith, shall remedy such occurrence with all reasonable dispatch, and shall promptly give written notice to Buyer of the cessation of such occurrence.

(2) In the event that Seller elects to use foreign technology, including but not limited to that of the former Soviet Union (FSU), it is expressly understood that Seller accepts all risks associated with such an international transaction. Specifically, neither the United State Government nor Buyer has any obligation to negotiate agreements with a foreign government. Any impacts, to include cost or schedule impacts, of such agreements on Seller will be borne entirely by Seller on this effort. Therefore, any delays or nonperformance caused by use of foreign technology shall not be excused and Buyer may, if appropriate, terminate this agreement for default. However, the parties may elect to modify this order to accommodate any delays caused by the use of foreign technology. DoD policies on FSU propulsion and other foreign technology will be adhered to by Seller.

(3) In no event shall Seller be entitled to an equitable adjustment under this order or any other claims for any lost time or costs incurred by Seller due to any disruption of its activities at the launch sites/ranges, regardless of frequency or duration of any such interruptions, including disruptions of commercial activities, or for any delay in entry, temporary loss of access, barring of individual employees from the base under federal laws authorizing such actions, limitation or withdrawal of an employee's on-base driving privileges, or any other security action that may cause employees to be late to or unavailable at their work stations, or any delay in arrival of parts or supplies.

(4) In the event the performance of all or any part of the work of this order is delayed or interrupted by an act of Buyer that is not expressly or implicitly authorized by this order, Buyer and Seller shall mutually agree to a modified schedule and/or equitable adjustment pursuant to the Changes clause, subject to the following: an adjustment (excluding profit) shall be made for any increase in the cost of performance of this order caused by the delay or interruption and the order shall be modified in writing accordingly; an adjustment shall be made in the delivery or performance dates and any other contractual term or condition affected by the delay or interruption; no adjustment shall be made under this order for any delay or interruption to the extent that it would have been delayed by any other cause, including the fault or negligence of Seller, an occurrence beyond the reasonable control of Buyer and without its fault or negligence, or for which adjustment is provided or excluded under any other term or condition of this order; a claim under this clause shall not be allowed for any costs incurred more than 20 calendar days before Seller shall have notified Buyer in writing of the act or failure to act involved, and unless the claim, in an amount stated, is asserted in writing as soon as practicable after termination of the delay or interruption, but not later than the date of the launch affected by the delay.

(5) If Buyer determines that Seller has an inexcusable delay under the terms of this order, Buyer shall promptly notify Seller of the noncompliance. The notification shall contain a statement of the discrepancy. Seller shall respond within seven calendar days following receipt of notice with a written reply addressing how it will become compliant with the terms of the order. In the event Seller cannot cure the noncompliance, Buyer may terminate the contract in accordance with the Cancellation for Default or Termination for Convenience clause, whichever is applicable.

(6) Nothing in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) of this clause creates any liability on the part of Buyer for additional costs arising from delays caused by the events described in this clause.

(3) Upon written request by Buyer, Seller will provide usage data for Class II ODSs and EPCRA Section 313 chemicals. Buyer's request may include copies of Seller's then-current environmental plans, reports, or other like documentation that supports its efforts to minimize the use and generation of hazardous materials.
