Consistent with 48 C.F.R. 12.212 and 48 C.F.R. 227.7202-1 through 227.7202-4 (June 1995), all U.S. Government End Users acquire such commercial software licenses with only those rights set forth therein. The licensed commercial software (including related documentation is provided to the U.S. Government End Users

- (i) only as a commercial end item; and
- (ii) only pursuant to this Agreement.

(H) Intention to Use Consultants

The Government intends to utilize the services of nongovernmental engineering organizations in technical, advisory and consulting roles for overall technical review of the activities covered by this contract. Although the consultants shall not have the right of technical direction, they shall from time to time and on a frequent basis attend technical reviews, participate in technical interchange meetings, observe national processing, witness fabrication and assembly, and monitor testing within the Seller and Subcontractor facilities. The consultants will thus require access to program-related Seller facilities and documentation. Seller proprietary data shall not be made available to consultants unless and until a protection agreement has been generated between the consultant and the Seller and evidence of such agreement made available to the Government.

(I) Technical Data or Computer Software Previously Delivered to the Government

The Offeror shall attach to its offer an identification of all documents or other media incorporating technical data or computer software it intends to deliver under this contract with other than unlimited rights that are identical or substantially similar to documents or other media that the Offeror has produced for, delivered to, or is obligated to deliver to the Government under any -

- 1) contract or subcontract

(J) Organizational Conflicts of Interest; General

(a) Seller warrants that, to the best of its knowledge and belief, there are no relevant facts that could give rise to Organizational Conflicts of Interest, as defined in FAR 9.501. Or, alternatively, the contract warrants that it had disclosed all relevant information regarding any actual or potential organizational conflicts of interest.

(b) Seller agrees that if an organizational conflict of interest with respect to this contract is discovered during its performance, an immediate and full disclosure in writing shall be made to the Contracting Officer, through Buyer). Such notification shall include a description of the action the Seller has taken or proposes to take to avoid, neutralize or mitigate such conflicts. Seller shall continue performance until notified by Buyer of any contrary actions to be taken. Buyer may however, terminate the contract for its convenience if it deems such termination to be in the best interest of the Buyer

(c) If Seller was aware of an organizational conflict of interest before award of this contract and did not fully disclose the conflict to Buyer) the Buyer may terminate the contract for default.

(d) Seller shall insert a clause containing all the terms and conditions of this clause in all subcontracts for work to be performed similar to the services provided by Seller, and the terms "contract", "Seller" and "contracting officer" modified appropriately to preserve the Government's rights.

(e) Before a contract modification is made that adds new work or significantly increases the period of performance, the Seller shall agree to submit either an organizational conflict of interest disclosure or representation or an update of a previously submitted disclosure or representation, if requested by Buyer

(f) Seller further agrees that Government (or Buyer) may periodically review Seller's compliance with these provisions of require such self assessments or additional certifications as Buyer deems appropriate.

(K) Non Publicity

(a) Seller shall not use or allow to be used any aspect of this solicitation and/or contract for publicity. "Publicity" means, but is not limited to, advertising (e.g. trade magazines, newspapers, internet, radio, television, etc.), communications with the media, marketing, or a reference for new business. It is further understood that this obligation shall not expire upon completion or termination of this contract, but will continue indefinitely. The contract may request a waiver or release from the foregoing but shall not deviate there from unless authorized to do so in writing by Buyer. Sellers are not required to obtain waivers when informing the offices within this agency of contracts it has performed or in the process of performing provided there are no security restrictions. Sellers may include the requirements for security clearances up to the TS, SCI level in public employment advertisements; however these advertisements may not describe the scope of polygraph requirements in any manner. Violations of this clause constitute a major breach of contract, and the contract may be terminated for default, without the requirement of a 10-day cure notice.

(b) The Seller shall include the substance of this clause, including this paragraph (b), in each subcontract issued under this contract.

(L) Restrictions Regarding Former Sponsor Employees

(a) Except as authorized in writing by Buyer, the Seller shall not use any person in the direct performance of this contract who:

(1) has resigned from employment with the sponsor within the previous 18 months

(2) has been barred from performing Sponsor contracts for a period of time as a result of a recommendation from Sponsor Advocacy Board.

(3) was terminated from employment with the Sponsor

(b) Paragraph (a) includes the use of a person as a Seller employee, subcontractor employee, consultant, independent contractor, or similar arrangement.

(c) Paragraph (a) (1) does not apply to persons who retired from the Sponsor

(d) Seller agrees to include in each subcontract a clause requiring compliance with these restrictions by the subcontractor and succeeding levels of subcontracts.

(M) Timely Notice of Litigation

(a) Seller hereby agrees to immediately give written notice to the Contracting Officer (or Buyer) of any current litigation of any anticipated litigation that may arise during the course of the performance of this contract or hereafter, that involves or in any way relates to or affects: (1) any aspect of this contract, (2) its terms or costs, (3) pertinent subcontracts, or (4) the Customer's (or Buyer's) relationship with the Seller or subcontractors. This notice requirements is a continuing obligation and survives termination, settlement or close-out of the contract.

(b) The Contracting Officer (or Buyer) shall have access to and the right to examine any pertinent books, documents, papers and records of the Seller or subcontractor (s) involving customer transactions related to any contract litigation.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this agreement shall constitute a waiver of either party's rights in litigation. Including but not limited to, the rights of attorney-client privilege, to obtain injunctive relief, and/or any rights of remedies available.

(d) The Seller agrees to insert paragraphs (a) through (d) of this clause in any subcontract under this contract. In the event of litigation, the subcontractor shall immediately notify the next tier subcontractor of Buyer, as the case may be, of all relevant information with respect to such litigation.

(N) Protection of Information

(a) It is the Government's intent to ensure proper handling of sensitive planning, budgetary, acquisition and contracting information that will be provided to or developed by, the Seller during contract performance. It is also the Government's intent to protect the proprietary rights of industrial Sellers whose data the Seller may receive in fulfilling its contractual commitments hereunder.

(b) Accordingly, the Seller agrees it will not disclose, divulge, discuss or otherwise reveal information to anyone of any organization not authorized access to such information without the express written approval of the Contracting Officer (or Buyer). The Seller shall require that each of its employees assigned to work on subcontracts issued hereunder, execute nondisclosure agreements acknowledging the above restrictions before providing them access to such information. Seller shall also require all future company employees, subsubcontractors, and subcontractor employees needing similar access to such information to execute nondisclosure agreements prior to providing them access to the above identified information. The requirements for the Seller to secure nondisclosure agreements from their employees may be satisfied by having each employee sign on nondisclosure agreement as a term of their employment, and need not be accomplished separately for each individual contract for which the employee will support, unless a separate agreement is specifically requested by the Contracting Officer, through Buyer. Seller will make copies of these individual agreements available to Buyer upon request. The restrictions do not apply to such information after the Government has released it to the Seller community, either in preparation for or as part of a future procurement, or through such means as dissemination at Contractor Industrial Forums.

(c) Seller further agrees that any source documents furnished by the Government and any Seller documents developed therefrom in the performance of this contract are the sole property of the Government and will be held in the strictest confidence.

(d) If the work to be performed under this contract requires access to the proprietary data of other companies, the contract agrees to enter into an agreement with the company that has developed this proprietary information to: 1) protect such proprietary data from unauthorized use or disclosure for as long as the information remains proprietary; 2) refrain from using the information for any purpose other than support of this Government contract for which it was furnished. Seller shall provide a properly executed copy of such agreement(s) to Buyer. These restrictions are not intended to protect data furnished voluntarily without limitations on their use. Neither are they intended to protect data, available to the Government or Seller, from other sources without restriction.

(e) The Seller agrees to include in each subcontract a clause requiring compliance by the subcontractor and succeeding levels of subcontractors with the terms and condition herein.

(f) Seller agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Government and Buyer. Its agents and employees from every claim or liability, including attorney fees, court costs, and expenses arising out of, or in any way related to, the misuse or unauthorized modification, reproduction, release, performance, display, or disclosure of data with restrictive legends received in performance of this contract by the Seller or any person to whom the Seller has released or disclosed the data.

(g) Seller further agrees that the Government may periodically review the Seller's compliance with these provisions or require such assessments or additional certifications as the Government deems appropriate. Seller is on notice that this clause supplements, but does not supersede, the Seller's obligation under paragraph (b) of the provision entitled "Organizational Conflicts of Interest-General."

(O) Workplace Health and Safety

(a) Seller shall comply with the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) of 1970 (29U.S.C Section 651 et seq.) and regulations promulgated thereunder including, but not limited to, the standards issued by the Secretary of Labor at Part 1926 and Part 1910 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Seller shall also comply with all applicable state occupational safety and health laws and regulations. Noncompliance shall be grounds for termination of this contract in accordance with its default provisions.

(P) Accident Reporting

(a) Seller shall provide oral notification to Buyer when an accident occurs on Federal property in connection with performance of this contract. Notification must be given not later than twenty-four (24) hours after the accident occurs.

(b) When requested by Buyer, Seller shall conduct an investigation of the accident and shall prepare a report that identifies all pertinent facts related to the accident. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the underlying cause(s) of the accident and the actions Seller shall take to prevent the recurrence of similar accidents. The Seller shall submit the report to Buyer not later than fourteen (14) calendar days from the date accident occurs.

(c) The Government may elect to conduct an investigation of the accident with the assistance of the Seller.

(d) Compliance with the provisions of this clause shall not entitle Seller to an equitable adjustment in contract price or to an extension of performance schedule.

(e) Seller shall incorporate this clause, including this paragraph (e), in all subcontracts, with appropriate changes in the designation of the parties.

(iii) For helicopters, “flight” begins upon engagement of the rotors for the purpose of take-off from the Seller’s premises and continues until the aircraft has returned to the ground on the Seller’s premises and the rotors are disengaged.

(iv) For vertical take-off aircraft, “flight” begins upon disengagement from any launching platform or device on the Seller’s premises and continues until the aircraft has been engaged to any launching platform or device on the Seller’s premises;

(v) All aircraft off the Seller’s premises shall be considered to be in flight when on the ground or water for reasonable periods following emergency landings. Landings made in performance of this contract, or landings approved in writing by the Contracting Officer.

(5) “Flight crew member” means the pilot, the co-pilot, and, unless otherwise provided in the Schedule, the flight engineer, and navigator when assigned to their respective crew positions for the purpose of conducting any flight on behalf of the Seller. It also includes any pilot of operator of an unmanned aerial vehicle. If required, a systems operator may also be assigned as a flight crew member.

(6) “In the open” means located wholly outside of buildings on the Seller’s premises or other places described in the Schedule as being “in the open”. Government furnished aircraft shall be considered to be located “in the open” at all times while in the Seller’s possession, care, custody, or control.

(7) “Operation” means operations and tests of the aircraft and its installed equipment, accessories and power plants, while the aircraft is in the open or in motion. The term does not apply to aircraft on any production line or in flight.

(b) Combined regulation/instruction. Seller shall be bound by the operating procedures contained in the contract, including any incorporated DoD procedures, such as the combined regulation/instruction entitled “Contractors Flight and Ground Operations” (Air Force Instruction 10-220, Army Regulation 95-20, NAVAIR Instruction 3710-1 (Series), Coast Guard Instruction M13020.3, and Defense Management Agency Instruction 8210.1) in effect on the date of contract award.

(c) Government as self-insurer. Subject to the conditions in paragraph (d) of this clause, the Government self-insures and assumes the risk of damage to, or loss or destruction of aircraft “in the open,” during “operation” and in “flight”, except as may be specifically provided in the Schedule as an exception to this clause. Seller shall not be liable to Government for such damage, loss, or destruction beyond the Seller’s share of loss amount under the Government’s self-insurance.

(d) Conditions for Government’s self -insurance. The Government’s assumption of risk for aircraft in the open shall continue unless the Contracting Officer finds that the Seller has failed to comply with paragraph (b) of this clause, or that the aircraft is in the open under reasonable conditions and the Seller fails to take prompt corrective action.

(1) The Contracting Officer, when finding that the Seller has failed to comply with paragraph (b) of this clause or that the aircraft is in the open under reasonable conditions, shall notify the Seller in writing, through Buyer, and shall require the Seller to make corrections within a reasonable time.

(2) Upon receipt of such notice, Seller shall promptly correct the cited conditions, regardless of whether there is agreement that the conditions are unreasonable.

(i) If the Contracting Officer later determines that the cited conditions were not unreasonable, and equitable adjustment shall be made in the contract price for any additional costs incurred in correcting the conditions.

(ii) Any dispute as to the unreasonableness of the conditions or the equitable adjustment shall be considered a dispute under the Disputes clause of this contract.

(3) If the Contracting Officer finds that the Seller failed to act promptly to correct the cited conditions or failed to correct the conditions within a reasonable time, the Contracting Officer may terminate the Governments assumption of risk for any aircraft in the open under the cited conditions. The termination will be effective at 12:01 AM on the fifteenth day following the day the written notice is received by the Seller.

(i) If the Contracting Officer later determines that the Seller acted promptly to correct the cited conditions or that the time taken by the Seller was not unreasonable, an equitable adjustment shall be made on the contract price for any additional costs incurred as a result of termination of the Governments assumption of risk.

(ii) Any dispute as to the timeliness of the Seller’s action or the equitable adjustment shall be considered a dispute under the Disputes clause of this contract.

(4) If the Government terminates its assumption of risk pursuant to the terms of this clause –

(i) Seller shall thereafter assume the entire risk for damage, loss, or destruction of, the affected aircraft;

(ii) Any costs incurred by the Seller (including costs of the Seller’s self-insurance, insurance premiums paid to insure the Seller’s assumption of risk, deductibles associated with such purchased insurance, etc.) to mitigate its assumption of risk are unallowable costs; and

(iii)The liability provisions of the Government Property clause of this contract are not applicable to the affected aircraft.

(5) The Seller shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer, through Buyer, when unreasonable conditions have been corrected;

(i) If, upon receipt of the Seller’s notice of the correction of the unreasonable conditions, the Government elects to again assume the risk of loss and relieve the Seller of its liability for damage, loss or destruction of the aircraft, the Contracting Officer will notify the Seller, through Buyer, of the Contracting Officers decision to resume the Government risk of loss. The Contactor shall be entitled to an equitable adjustment in the contract price for any insurance costs extending from the end of the third working day after the Government receipt of the Seller notice of correction until the Seller is notified that the government will resume the risk of loss.

(ii) If the Government does not again assume the risk of loss and the unreasonable conditions have been corrected, the Seller shall be entitled to an equitable adjustment for insurance costs, in any, extending after the third working day after the Government’s receipt of the Seller’s notice of correction.

(6) The Government’s termination of its assumption of risk of loss does not relieve the Seller of its obligation to comply with all other provisions of this clause, including any incorporated operating procedures.

(e) Exclusions from the Government’s assumption of risk. The Government’s assumption of risk shall not extend to damage, loss, of destruction of aircraft which –

(1) Results from the failure of the Seller, due to willful misconduct or lack of good faith of any of the Seller’s managerial personnel, to maintain and administer a program for the protection and preservation of the aircraft in the open ad during operation in accordance with sound industrial practice, including oversight of subcontractor’s program.

- (2) Is sustained during flight if either the flight or the flight crew members have not been approved in advance of any flight in writing by the Government Flight Representative designated by the Contracting Officer.
- (3) Occurs in the course of transportation by rail, or by conveyance on public streets, highways, or waterways, except for Government furnished property;
- (4) is covered by insurance;
- (5) Consists of wear and tear; deterioration (including rust and corrosion); freezing; or mechanical, structural, or electrical breakdown or failure, unless these are the result of other loss, damage or destruction covered by this clause. (This exclusion does not apply to Government-furnished property if damage consists of reasonable wear and tear or deterioration, or results from inherent vice, e.g., a known condition of design defect, in the property); or
- (6) Is sustained while the aircraft is being worked on and is a direct result of the work unless such damage, loss, or destruction would be covered by insurance which would have been maintained by the Seller, but for the Governments assumption of risk.
- (f) Seller's share of loss and Seller's deductible under the Government Self-insurance –
- (1) Seller assumes the risk of loss and shall be responsible for the Seller's share of loss under the Governments self-insurance. That share is the lesser of –
- (i) the first $100,000 of loss or damage to aircraft in the open, during operation of in flight resulting from each separate event, except for reasonable wear and tear and to the extent the loss or damage is caused by negligence of Government personnel; or
- (ii) Twenty percent of the price or estimated cost of this contract.
- (2) If the Government elects to require that the aircraft be replaced or restored by Seller to its condition immediately prior to the damage, the equitable adjustment in the price authorized by paragraph (j) of this clause shall not include the dollar amount of the risk assumed by Seller.
- (3) In the event the Government does not elect repair or replacement, Seller agrees to credit the contract price or pay the Government, as directed by the Contracting Officer, the lesser of –
- (i) $100,000;
- (ii) Twenty percent of the price or estimated cost of this contract; or
- (iii) The amount of loss.
- (4) For task order and delivery order contracts, the Seller's share of the loss shall be the lesser of $100,000 or twenty percent of the combined price or total estimated cost of those orders issued to date to which the clause applies.
- (5) The costs incurred by Seller for its share of the loss and for insuring against that loss are unallowable costs, including but not limited to –
- (i) Seller's share of loss under the Government's self-insurance;
- (ii) The costs of Seller's self-insurance;
- (iii) The deductible for any Seller-purchased insurance;
- (iv) Insurance premiums paid for Seller-purchased insurance, and
- (v) Cost associated with determining, litigating and defending against Seller's liability.
- (g) Subcontractor possession or control. Seller shall not be relieved from liability for damage, loss, or destruction of aircraft while such aircraft is in its possession or control of its subcontractors, except to the extent that the subcontract, with written approval of the Contracting Officer, provides for relief from each liability. In the absence of approval, the subcontract shall contain provisions requiring the return of aircraft in as good a condition as when received, except for reasonable wear and tear or for the utilization of the property in accordance with the provisions of this contract.
- (h) Seller's exclusion of insurance costs. Seller warrants that the contract price does not and will not include, except as may be authorized in this clause, any charge or contingency reserve for insurance covering damage, loss, or destruction of aircraft while in the open, during operation, or in flight when the risk has been assumed by the Government including Sellers share of loss in this clause, even if assumption may be terminated for aircraft in the open.
- (i) Procedures in the event of loss.

(1) In the event of damage, loss, or destruction of aircraft in the open, during operation, or in flight, Sellers shall take all reasonable steps to protect the aircraft from further damage, to separate damaged and undamaged aircraft and to put all aircraft in the best possible order. Except in cases covered by paragraph (f) (2) of this clause, Seller shall furnish to Buyer, a statement of -

(i) The damaged, lost, or destroyed aircraft;

(ii) The time and origin of the damage, loss or destruction;

(iii) All known interests in commingled property of which aircraft are a part; and

(iv) The insurance, if any, covering the interest of the commingled property.

(2) Buyer will make an equitable adjustment for expenditures made by the Seller in performing the obligations under this paragraph.

(j) Loss prior to delivery (1) If prior to delivery and acceptance by the Government, aircraft is damaged, lost, or destroyed and the Government assumed the risk, the Government shall either -

(i) Require that the aircraft be replaced or restored by the Seller to the condition immediately prior to the damage, in which event the Contracting Officer will make an equitable adjustment in the contract price and the time for contract performance; or

(ii) Terminate this contract with respect to the aircraft. Notwithstanding the provisions in any other termination clause under this contract, in the event of termination, Seller shall be paid the contract price for the aircraft (or, if applicable, any work to be performed on the aircraft) less any amount Buyer determines -

(A) It would have cost the Seller to complete the aircraft or any work to be performed on the aircraft) together with anticipated profit on uncompleted work; and

(B) Would be the value of the damaged aircraft or any salvage retained by the Seller.

(2) Buyer shall prescribe the manner of disposition of the damaged, lost, or destroyed aircraft, or any parts of the aircraft. If any additional costs of such disposition are incurred by the Seller, a further equitable adjustment will be made in the amount due the Seller. Failure of the parties to agree upon termination costs of an equitable adjustment with respect to any aircraft shall be considered a dispute under the Disputes clause.

(k) Reimbursement from a third party. In the event the Seller is reimbursed or compensated by a third person for damage, loss, or destruction of aircraft and has also been compensated by the Government, the Seller shall equitably reimburse the Government. The Seller shall do nothing to prejudice the Government's right to recover against third parties for damage, loss, or destruction. Upon the request of the Contracting Officer or authorized representative, the Seller shall at Government expense furnish to the Government all reasonable assistance and cooperation (including prosecution of suit and the execution of instruments of assignment of subrogation) in obtaining recovery.

(l) Government acceptance of liability. To the extent the Government has accepted such liability under other provisions of this contract, the Seller shall not be reimbursed for liability to third persons for loss or damage to property or for death or bodily injury caused by aircraft during flight unless the flight crew members previously have been approved for this flight in writing by the Government Flight Representative designated by the Contracting Officer.

(m) Subcontracts. Seller shall incorporate the requirements of this clause, including this paragraph (m), in all subcontracts.

(R) Accident Reporting and Investigations Involving Aircraft, Missiles and Space launch Vehicles

(a) Seller shall report promptly to Buyer all pertinent facts relating to each accident involving an aircraft, missile or space launch vehicle being manufactured, modified, repaired, or overhauled in connection with this contract.

(b) If the Government (or Buyer) elects to conduct an investigation of the accident, Seller will cooperate and assist the Government's (or Buyer's) personnel until the investigation is complete.

(c) Seller will include a clause in subcontracts under this contract to require subcontractor cooperation and assistance in accident investigations.
