

SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

1. Seller shall reference the contract number and associated line item number in the reference section of all shipping documents (including packing list, carrier's air waybill, bill of lading, etc.). Seller shall comply with the FOB terms, carrier designation, and mode/service level specified in the contract.
2. Seller's failure to comply with these requirements will result in Seller being liable for excess freight charges and a $100 administrative processing fee.
3. For specific routing information, Seller can refer to the Shipment Routing Instructions located on the "Doing Business with Boeing" web-site:

<http://www.boeing.com/companyoffices/doingbiz/routinginst/routing.htm>.
4. Seller should refer any questions concerning these routing instructions to the Boeing Transportation focal listed in the Shipment Routing Instructions or to Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative.
