

H101

PRIOR APPROVAL OF FOREIGN SOURCES

Seller may not offer to subcontract or otherwise procure, or subcontract or otherwise procure, any item or part thereof, ordered hereunder, to or from any foreign subcontractor, supplier, or other source without the prior written approval of Buyer. Buyer expressly reserves the right to all industrial benefits and other offset credits arising in respect of, and all applications to co-production or similar obligations of, all procurements from foreign sources of any items or parts thereof ordered hereunder, including the right to direct the manner in which each such procurement is effected and to require the provision of such information, in such form, as may be required to enable Buyer to obtain the benefits thereof. All options or similar commitments obtained by Seller, in respect of its procurement of any item or part thereof ordered hereunder, to procure additional quantities thereof to fulfill anticipated requirements Buyer may have therefore shall be subject to the provisions hereof.