NON-GSI STATEMENT – GOVERNMENT RIGHT TO INSPECT

THE GOVERNMENT RESERVES THE RIGHT TO INSPECT THE WORK INCLUDED IN THIS ORDER AT THE SELLER'S PLANT.

In the event the government representative elects to impose Government Source Inspection (GSI) oversight requirements to the Seller under this contract, the Seller shall immediately inform the Buyer's Supplier Quality Representative (SQR) and the Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative of such government direction. Seller shall also furnish a copy of the government representative's written direction (DCMA Letter of Instruction, Form 1232, etc.). When the government elects to invoke this requirement the Seller shall ensure that evidence of Government Source Inspection is included with shipment of Goods.
