

Section 3 : ADMINISTRATIVE CLAUSES

336. Release and Use of Information (10/1/96).

(a) Seller will secure the written approval of Buyer before any specifications, records, drawings, data, or other technical information, classified or unclassified, developed under this contract are released to anyone other than the U.S. Government, Seller's directors, officers, and employees, accountants and attorneys for Seller, to the extent that may be reasonable and necessary, or to those of Seller's lower-tier subcontractors requiring the information for the performance of work on subcontracts under this contract.

(b) All specifications, records, drawings, data, and other technical information furnished to Seller by Buyer under this contract will be returned to Buyer upon request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller may utilize any such information for the manufacture by Seller of goods for end use by the U.S. Government to the extent that the U. S. Government has the right to the use of such information.

(c) Seller will incorporate this clause, including this subparagraph, in all lower-tier subcontracts hereunder.
