

Section 6 : QUALITY ASSURANCE CLAUSES / CQAR

662. Buyer's Quality Surveillance (10/1/96).

(a) All contractual quality system and product requirements are subject to review by one of Buyer's Quality Source Surveillance Representative (QSSR). Upon receipt of this contract, Seller will promptly notify Buyer's QSSR that services its plant so that arrangements can be made for the appropriate reviews. If Seller does not know which Buyer QSSR is responsible for its plant, it can contact Buyer's authorized purchasing representative for this information.

(b) Seller will provide reasonable facilities and assistance, including all quality records and related data for contracted goods, upon request. Seller will notify Buyer's QSSR at least five days prior to the start of any processing or manufacturing in conjunction with this contract and 48 hours in advance of the time that the goods are available for review. The approval of Buyer's QSSR will be indicated on Seller's shipping document as evidence of approval to ship.
